4. REVIEW, DISCUSSION, AND POSSIBLE ACTION REGARDING THOSE AUDITEES WHO MAY NOT BE IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE 2015-2017 CE AUDIT:

Psychologists:

Justine Majeres, Psy.D. – Committee members proceeded with a substantive review of Dr. Majeres’ CE documentation. Upon review, The Committee determined that the documentation submitted was complete and fulfilled the requirements of rule and statute. After deliberation, Dr. Flowers made a motion, seconded by Dr. Mellott, to find Dr. Majeres in compliance with the 2015-2017 CE audit. The motion carried 3-0.

Kristin Robaina, Psy.D. – Committee members proceeded with a substantive review of Dr. Robaina’s CE documentation. At this time, the Committee is requesting that Dr. Robaina provide information regarding the presenter(s) of the recertification continuing education courses she attended pursuant to R4-26-207(F)(1)(2). The Committee has not made a determination on whether the recertification courses will count toward Dr. Robaina’s continuing education requirement. Currently, the Committee can count 14.5 hours of continuing education toward the 40 required hours. Additionally, the Committee determined that the ethics and domestic violence/child abuse requirement has been met. Dr. Flowers made a motion, seconded by Dr. Mellott, to send an additional information request letter to Dr. Robaina, requesting that she address the above noted deficiencies. The motion carried 3-0.

Behavior Analysts:

Vanessa Fessenden, Ph.D. – Committee members proceeded with a substantive review of Dr. Fessenden’s CE documentation. Upon review, The Committee determined that the documentation submitted was complete and fulfilled the requirements of rule and statute. After deliberation, Dr. Brundage made a motion, seconded by Dr. Mellott, to find Dr. Fessenden in compliance with the 2015-2017 CE audit. The motion carried 3-0.

5. DISCUSSION, CONSIDERATION AND POSSIBLE ACTION REGARDING THOSE AUDITEES WHO SUBMITTED DOCUMENTATION AFTER THE DEADLINE

Psychologists:

Dana M. Ferris, Ph.D. – Committee members proceeded with a substantive review of Dr. Ferris’ CE documentation and her explanation for submitting her CE documentation untimely. Upon review, The Committee determined that the documentation submitted was complete and fulfilled the requirements of rule and statute. After deliberation, Dr. Mellott made a motion, seconded by Dr. Flowers, to find Dr. Ferris in compliance with the 2015-2017 CE audit and to take no action on her untimely submission. The motion carried 3-0.

Devin Marsh, Ph.D. – Committee members proceeded with a substantive review of Dr. Marsh’s CE documentation and his explanation for submitting his CE documentation untimely. Upon review, the Committee noted the following:

- Dr. Marsh is one hour deficient in meeting the ethics requirement.
- Dr. Marsh provided information regarding the EMDR training he attended but did not provide evidence that he attended the training.
- Dr. Marsh indicated that he obtained the required four hours in domestic violence and/or child abuse but did not submit documentation.
- Dr. Marsh indicated that he co-authored an article, Behavioral Health Trends throughout a 9-month Brigade Combat Team Deployment to Afghanistan, but did not submit the article.
- Dr. Marsh indicated that he taught a Master’s level course in counseling at Argosy University during the summer of 2015, but did not submit the syllabus.

The Committee is requesting that the following be submitted to the Board office:

- Evidence that he attended the EMDR training (e.g. certificate of completion).
- Documentation that he obtained the required four hours in domestic violence and/or child abuse.
- A copy of the published article.
- The course syllabus for the course in counseling he taught.

- A letter submitted directly to the Board office from the Department Chair attesting that he taught the course in counseling.

Dr. Flowers made a motion, seconded by Dr. Brundage, to send an additional information request letter to Dr. Marsh, requesting that he address the above noted deficiencies. The motion carried 3-0.

Timothy Greenhill, Psy.D. – Committee members proceeded with a substantive review of Dr. Greenhill’s CE documentation and his explanation for submitting his CE documentation untimely. Upon review, The Committee determined that the documentation submitted was complete and fulfilled the requirements of rule and statute. After deliberation, Dr. Mellott made a motion, seconded by Dr. Flowers, to find Dr. Greenhill in compliance with the 2015-2017 CE audit and to take no action on his untimely submission. The motion carried 3-0.

6. NEW BUSINESS/AGENDA ITEMS FOR FUTURE MEETINGS

There were no new items for future agendas.

7. ADJOURN

There being no further business to come before the Continuing Education Committee, a motion was made by Dr. Mellott, seconded by Dr. Flowers, and unanimously carried 3-0, to adjourn the meeting at 8:28 a.m.
