

ARIZONA BOARD OF PSYCHOLOGIST EXAMINERS
BEHAVIOR ANALYST APPLICATION FOR LICENSURE BY UNIVERSAL RECOGNITION

APPROPRIATE DOCUMENTATION FOR “YES” ANSWERS (QUESTIONS 5-10)

The licensing Board's mission first and foremost is to protect the public. To that end, the Board requires applicants to answer questions related to professional conduct so that it can ascertain whether an applicant may be a danger to clients and patients. Below are the professional conduct questions asked on the Behavior Analyst Application for Licensure by Universal Recognition form, and the associated documentation or evidence that the applicant must submit to the Board if the applicant's answer to the question is “yes”.

- 5) Have you ever had a professional license, certification or registration refused, revoked, suspended or restricted in any regulatory jurisdiction of the U.S.?
  - a. A copy of any and all official Board order(s), action(s), consent agreement(s), etc. detailing the finding of facts, conclusions of law and terms of the order.
  - b. Your detailed written explanation regarding the events that led to the Board's action(s). Please include what you've learned from the experience(s), and what corrective action measures you have taken as a result.

- 6) Have you ever voluntarily surrendered a license, certification, or registration in another regulatory jurisdiction in the U.S. while under investigation for reasons that relate to unprofessional conduct or in lieu of disciplinary proceedings?
  - a. A copy of any and all official Board order(s), action(s), consent agreement(s), etc. detailing the finding of facts, conclusions of law and terms of the order.
  - b. Your detailed written explanation regarding the events that led to the voluntary surrender. Please include what you've learned from the experience(s), and what corrective action measures you have taken as a result.

- 7) Have you ever had a complaint, allegation or investigation in another regulatory jurisdiction in the US that relates to unprofessional conduct against your professional license, certification or registration?
  - a. A copy of any and all unresolved complaints, allegations or investigation(s), a copy of your response(s), and the current status of the complaint.
  - b. Your detailed written explanation regarding the events surrounding the complaint, allegation, etc., and what corrective action measures you have taken as a result.

- 8) Are you currently awaiting trial, under indictment, have been convicted of, pled no contest or guilty to any felony or misdemeanor other than a minor traffic offense or ever entered into a diversion program in lieu of prosecution, including any convictions that have been expunged, pardoned, or deleted? (Please note: a DUI is not a minor traffic offense and is required to be reported.)
  - a. A copy of any and all police records. Please contact the law enforcement agency involved to obtain these records. The records should include the officer's report, ticket(s), any and all sobriety test results and lab results, if applicable, all initial charges, impound records, if any, etc.
  - b. A copy of any and all court records. Please contact the court where the matter was heard to obtain these records. Court records may include some police records. Include any charging documents, sentencing documents, probation documents, proof of completion of terms of sentencing, etc.

- c. If the law enforcement agency and the court no longer have the records on file, a letter from the agency or court is required. The letter must explain why the records no longer exist.
- d. Your detailed written explanation regarding the events that led to the arrest/charge, how the matter was resolved, what you learned from the experience(s), and what corrective measures you have taken as a result.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS 9 AND 10 ARE CONFIDENTIAL AND WILL NOT BE DISCLOSED TO THE PUBLIC
